OFFICIAL PAPER OF SOCORRO COUNTY.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 9, 1905.

THESE are glorious rains, and it is a notable fact that they fall upon the single statehood and the joint statehood alike.

GOVERNOR OTERO'S removal of the Hubbells and their creature 'Slavio was a graceful and beneficent act exactly in line with the present general movement toward decency in politics.

THE editor is home again. A brief sojourn on the prairies of Iowa and in the city on the banks of the Kaw convinced him more firmly than ever that New Mexico is the fairest land on earth and that Socorro is verily the Gem City thereof.

THE Santa Fe New Mexican is applying the cat o' nine tails to the backs of the Santa Fe county tax dodgers with a vigor evidently born of strong conviction. The flagellation will meet with hearty approval in other counties than Santa Fe.

It appears that labor unionism has lost in its fight against the Santa Fe railway. There is a world of good work for labor unions to do. If a few rattle brained leaders could be suppressed there would be much greater hope that the work would be done.

AFTER considering all the various opinions as to the relative advantages to Japan and Russia in the treaty of peace just made between those countries, the fact remains that Japan won more than she fought for and that Russia lost all and immeasurably more than Japan won.

THE CHIEFTAIN ventures the prediction that the improvements to be begun immediately by the Santa Fe company on the Rio Grande division is for the purpose of putting this part of the road in the best possible condition to accommodate the fast trains over the new trans-continental line to be completed by the building of the Belen cut-off. Mark the prediction.

OSG Gilson Willets is the latest eastern tomfool to visit New Mexico and "seek the bubbled reputation" by writing a lot of fantastic rot about conditions that have no existence save in his own reckless imagination. To say that Willets is a liar would imply that he knows that his statements are false. It would be best simply to consider him an inspired idiot without the saving grace of inspiration.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal casts a very dark horoscope for its party. It says that Mr. Bryan is still a big force in public affairs. "He will weed as wide a swath," it says, "in 1908 as he did in 1900. He will write the platform and name the ticket. No one will take the field against him. The fortunes of the party are so low and the outlook so unpromising that no man of ambition or caliber would care to accept the responsibility of its leadership."

SUPERINTENDENT TORRES wishes to call the attention of all concerned to the fact that there is a compulsory school attendance law on the statute book of the Territory and that he purposes to do all that in him lies to see that that law is enforced in Socorro county. The fact that only about fifty per cent of the children of school age in the county attended school last year emphasizes the correctness of Mr. Torres' disposition in this matter.

SHOULD the moon suddenly and unexpectedly be "sick almost to doomsday with eclipse" as it was "a little ere the mightiest Julius fell," that frightful phenomenon will doubtless be due to the fact that certain ex-leaders in Bernalillo county politics have enlisted a company of swashbucklers to resist Governor Otero's authority in removing them from office. It really is rumored that the Hubbells and their followers have threatened physical resistance to the execution of the Governor's order removing them from office, but it is probable that there are some extremes of folly to which even they will not go.

WORK will be resumed at the School of Mines Monday with excellent prospects of a successful year. The School is second to no educational institution in the Territory in respect to the returns it gives for the money appropriated for its maintenance and support. Every graduate of the institution now occupies a responsible and lucrative position, and many former attendants who could not resist tempting offers of positions before their graduation are also doing well. In fact, it is difficult for the School of Mines to meet the demand made upon it for young men possessed of exactly the qualifications that it is prepared to give. This has been true in the past and it promises to be true in fuller measure in the future.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale by all druggists.

Couldn't Come Down.

'Quite lately a working man of the best type, having been laid up in a London hospital with an illness which needed incessant care, was at last nursed into convalescence. Gratitude to the kind lady who had tended him beamed on his honest face as he wished her farewell, with untutored cordiality—"Good-bye, Miss Nurse, and thank you, heartily. If there ever was a fallen angel on this earth, it's you." An old Balliol friend to whom I have told this anecdote caps it with an experience of Charles (afterwards Lord) Bowen, whom we both knew very well. Bowen, when at Oxford, went to a tobacco shop to order a peculiar kind of tobacco. As the woman in the shop did not understand the order, he explained that her husband would understand it perfectly. "My husband, sir, is above," Bowen: "Surely you can call him down?" "No, sir, he is in heaven."—Spectator.

Cause of Insomnia.

Indigestion nearly always disturbs the sleep more or less and is often the cause of insomnia. Many cases have been permanently cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

EARLY DIAMOND BUYING.

South Africa's First Finds Were Paid For in Cows.

South Africa's first diamonds were paid for in cows. The story is told by Joseph B. Robinson, one of the wealthy pioneers of the country. In 1879 he gave eight oxen and a wagon loaded with sugar and tobacco to a native in exchange for a twenty-three carat gem. "The news spread like wildfire through the countryside that a white man was giving away wagons and oxen for bits of stone," he says. "I set all the natives who came to work to seek for diamonds on one side of the Vaal river, and I brought up my own fifty men to hunt for diamonds among the bushes and scrub on the other side of the stream. I had bought the land on both sides of the river, so that I was working on my own property. Next morning at sunrise, when I was having my coffee, I was startled by a loud hullabalooing, and, looking out, I saw the whole gang of my men rushing toward me in a state of wild excitement.

"One of them had found a diamond of good size. They all had come to see what I would do with it. 'What will you give me for it?' said the finder. 'I will give you ten cows,' I replied and sent the man into the herd to take his pick. He marked ten of the best cows as his own. Then men had never dreamed of making such a bargain. Ten cows for a bit of stone! Off they went again and found diamonds every day. They became rich, and I accumulated a good store of precious stones.

"After we had accumulated a large quantity we decided we would better send them to London. We made a belt full of small pockets, in each of which we placed a diamond. When the belt was filled my partner girded it about his body and started for Cape Town. He never took off the belt until he reached London. And it was in this way the first consignment of African diamonds reached London."

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years, my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." The Socorro Drug and Supply Co. sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.

A Carefully Considered Comparison.

"We don't want no flyin' machines," said Erastus Pinkley, emphatically. "Dem automobiles is bad enough."

"Do you think flyin' machines will be worse than automobiles?" "Yaas, I does. When you is hit by an automobile, dar you is, but when you is hit by a flyin' machine; you aint th'oo yit. You has a long hard drop coming."—Washington Star.

Like Finding Money.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat, or chest irritation, better act promptly like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust, on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds."—Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine in the world. At the Socorro Drug and Supply Co. store; 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

MADE NEST IN BEARD.

Mouse Took Great Liberty With Miner in Alaska.

A mouse may naturally be a "timid beastie," but at times it shows an audacity which borders on the impertinent. A traveler in Alaska brings home this experience of his Klondike wanderings.

The teller of the story passed a long, cold winter at Cape Nome. He and his companions had, for a year or more, let their beards grow, as a protection for their throats and chests.

One night, when all were asleep, the man in question was awakened by a light patting on his face. The cold was intense, and not caring to move unless it was necessary, he lay still. Again the light touches on his cheek. He put up his hand, and his fingers closed on a tiny mouse tangled in the meshes of his beard. A companion, roused by the involuntary exclamation, lighted a candle and investigated.

The mouse had selected the beard as a warm and eligible site for a residence. It had burrowed out a nice, round nest, and when caught was engaged in dropping beans, purloined from the scanty larder, into the receptacle thus made.—Youth's Companion.

Attacked by a Mob

and beaten, in a labor riot, until covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was soon sound and well. "I use it in my family," writes G. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., "and find it perfect." Simply great for cuts and burns. Only 25c at the Socorro Drug and Supply Co. store.

The First One to Give in.

Most newly married people experience the first quarrel. A story is told of a young wife who, in the midst of the discussion, was asked by her husband which she considered ought to give in first—the man, who was destined to be master of the woman, or the woman, who was created for the man? The fair combatant settled the matter with a kiss as she replied: "Neither the stronger nor the weaker, but the one who loves the most."

His Example.

"Robert," said a teacher in one of the public schools to her brightest pupil, "give me an example of the use of the word 'damper' in a sentence."

Robert thought a moment, then delivered himself of the following:

"Teacher is damper ticular about English."—Harper's Weekly.

TIRED OUT.

There's many a wife sits in the growing shadows of an evening, knowing what it is to feel tired out, as if there was not another ounce of effort left in her. But if healthy she knows how sound her slumber will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. But it's another thing for the sick woman to feel tired out. Rest only seems to increase her suffering. She feels aching the back and throbbing nerves.

Sick women, hundreds of thousands of them, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I am pleased to inform you of the benefit I received from using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mrs. Elizabeth A. Oswald, of 45 Brant street, Windsor, Essex Co., Ontario, Canada. "Was quite discouraged when I wrote asking your advice, as the physicians here told me I could get no relief except by an operation, suffered for four years from irregular and profuse menstruation, had sick and nervous headaches most of the time, and at times could hardly walk across the floor from weakness. I thank God there is such a remedy as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for suffering women. Before I had taken the first bottle the headaches had left me and I was not long before regularity was established and still continues so. Have just finished house-cleaning which I never expected to be able to do again, and can truly say I never felt better than at present. I gladly recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to all who suffer from female weakness. It has cured me and made me stronger in every way. Neither my husband nor myself can say enough in its praise."

The selfish seller who urges some substitute is thinking of the larger profit he'll make and not of your best good.

Paw Figgjam—Nothing in particular, except that every girl's name has to have "y" in it somewhere and that they have begun spelling "statecraft" with a "g" instead of a "c."—Baltimore American.
